

Fun With Houses

There's a celebrity in Britian named James May who has a show on the BBC called "Toy Stories". Each episode centers around adventures he has with one of Britian's best loved toys. For the episode about Legos (to be aired in the spring), he had a life-size Lego house built in which he lived for several days. While the house itself didn't look all that cool from the outside, it was fully furnished with Lego, including a working commode. Here are some shots from the inside set to a groovy little song, "I'm living in a Lego house..." It's a shame that the entire project went to waste when they tore the thing down... prospective buyers were scared off by the million dollars it costs to move a Lego house.
