

Family Time

This morning, Mom and Dad and I went to pay our respects at the funeral home. None of us could go last night so we went for the gathering before they processed to the church. We KNEW that the rather small church would not hold many people and with 10 children, 38 grandchildren, and who knows how many great grandchildren, there would not be many places available for other than very immediate family members. I was hoping to catch Britt there but she must have been running late.

After, we returned to watch Elizabeth play basketball. A riot watching the young girls begin to develop. Autumn was great although she missed a shot and her mother yelled "USE THE BACKBOARD!" Yep, definitely her father's daughter ☹️. I thing Elizabeth did more sliding across the slippery floor. More than once, she got the ball and OOPS... whistle blows and traveling called.

I was also asked if I would like to get tickets to Wicked coming in April. Of course... most musicals are worth at least a try.

And tonight, I am taking my sister and two young ladies to see the Santa Claus play. They have been asking, and asking about it and finally it is almost here. I must say that I am pretty excited myself.
