

Have No Fear, Polyp Man Is Here!

You heard read me right – I did say Polyp Man. Found this amusing picture in the newspaper the other day and I couldn't resist posting it:

It's a little goofy, but hey, whatever works to raise awareness to help people detect and combat colon cancer. If Polyp Man saves lives, more power to him. I do have a little sympathy for the guy in the Polyp Man suit though; he looks like he feels ridiculous. Is being Polyp Man a resumé builder I wonder?
