

New addition to family

What?? Hey, I'm not married- if I want to call this a family addition then... ☐

It's too dark out to take a real photo, but this is what it looks like. Finally a car- a 2009 Hyundai Elantra. The bad news? Insurance is about 50% more for this than for my Metro. Oh, well.

Coming soon: last weekend's event when I am not so tired. Have to be up early tomorrow too...
