

Tonight... Tonight

And to think just earlier this week I was kicking and screaming. No longer. I am soooo excited about this show! And I know it is going to come across the stage over four performances! Why would I ever think that the stage would let me down? It hasn't yet. Have I ever let it down? I know we are going to do it justice for Beth who had been pushing to get this profound work on the stage ever since she read it. It is especially meaningful to her. If you want to know why Beth is so passionate about it, you will have to come and see Miracles for yourself this weekend at the Huber Opera House in Hicksville (that's OHIO, not NY).

Following last night's final dress rehearsal, our director commented that we all need to be bigger... more dramatic. WHAT?! I NEED TO BE BIGGER? (Never before have I been told that). No, no, not you. I was referring more to the ladies. As we were hanging around the parking lot, I kept reminding Beth of her statement. I WILL BE EVEN BIGGER! My two co-stars, director, and producer all laughed and said... Please, don't! (Oh... come on.)

Curtain up! Light the lights!

You got nothing to hit but the heights!

We'll be swell. We'll be great.

I can tell. Just you wait.

That lucky star I talk about is due!

Honey, everything's coming up roses for me and for you!
