

Holiday Movie Try To Sees

Well... since I do not have a play to be in this holiday season, I will try to hit a few of the blockbusters coming to the multiplexes in the next few weeks. I have already mentioned the runaway train movie that I CAN NEVER remember the title of but it stars Denzel Washington and Chris Pine. Denzel always seems to be at the top of his game. Does anyone know of a less than great performance he has delivered? Also curious to see if Mr. Pine can go beyond his role of Captain James Tiberius Kirk (that is the first role I have seen him in) UNSTOPPABLE! THAT'S IT! Opens Friday, November 12 (my day off, hmm).

Also Opening up this Friday is Skyline which looks like an entertaining alien invasion flick.

Next week's major opening is a definite must see! In fact, I have already made plans to see this next Saturday (it is my week to work Friday night). If you have not read/seen book/movie 6 in the Harry Potter series... may I suggest hunting out one of the two before heading out to see the first part of the final chapter. I have always thought that The Half Blood Prince was more of a transition to The Deathly Hallows.

Although, I found the previous film to be somewhat of a letdown, there are some elements that I recommend discovering before going into what I anticipate will be GREAT!

TRON:Legacy will probably be best experienced on a good cinema screen and hopefully, I will be able to make a viewing.

Twentysome years is an awfully long time to wait for a sequel. However, with the technological advances made since 1982(?!), I'm sure it will be spectacular!

The Chronicles of Narnia: Voyage of the Dawn Treader opens in December, too. I really was not aware that this had been completed until I saw a preview a few weeks ago. This is the third movie based on C.S. Lewis' classic 7 book series. I really enjoyed the previous installments...primarily since they were some of my favorite tales growing up.

I think that is about it! It almost seems like summer with all of the action-packed popcorn movies opening up. I thought the last few months of the year were geared toward the Oscar worthy features. Maybe someone thinks that Yogi and BooBoo will be "contendahs" or the return of the Fockers?

So... hopefully with all the hustle and bustle the holidays bring, everyone can take a few hours and escape.
